

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A- Sunday, 25th October 2026

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 104:3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

First Reading Exodus 22:20-26

A reading from the book of Exodus

If you are harsh with the widow or the orphan, my anger will rage against you.

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 17:2-4. 47. 51. R. v.2

(R.) I love you, Lord, my strength.

1. I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
when I call I am saved from my foes. (R.)

2. Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me.
He has given great victories to his king
and shown his love for his anointed. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

You turned away from idols to serve God and await his Son.

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you.

This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation John 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 22:34-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon Cf Psalm 19:6

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

"You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."

Matthew 22:37

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Benambra Honours St Francis of Assisi

More than 200 pilgrims from across Gippsland and beyond recently gathered in Benambra to mark the 800th anniversary of the death of St Francis of Assisi. Commencing with a vigil service at St Mary's in Bairnsdale, the pilgrimage continued into the High Country to St Francis of Assisi Church—the only church in the Diocese of Sale dedicated to the saint. Celebrations included an animal blessing by Bishop Greg Bennet, the presentation of a first-class relic, and a special Pilgrimage Mass honouring St Francis's call to peace, simplicity, and care for creation. ALL HALLOWS' EVE

History and Origins: The tradition of dressing up for Halloween dates back to European and Celtic traditions. The word hallow means holy and the word 'Halloween' comes from the words 'All Hallows' Eve, an ancient Celtic festival that was a celebration of the end of harvest and preparation for the harsh winter ahead. When the Romans took over the Celtic lands in A.D 50, they also had a similar celebration to honour the dead. Over the centuries, many people believed that on this night the boundary between the deceased and the living would be blurred and the dead would walk among the living. In order to confuse them they would wear masks.

The Catholic Influence: In AD 609, Pope Boniface IV, established two days to honor the dead and celebrate the saints (November 1st and November 2nd). As Christianity spread in the 9th Century throughout Celtic territories, a new 'All Hallow's Eve' tradition was being formed. On All Hallows Eve, the evening before All Saints' Day-1st November, a day when Catholics honor and celebrate all known and unknown saints, martyrs and faithful souls in heaven and All Souls Day 2nd of November, the celebration of all the faithful departed in purgatory, a vigil mass would be offered in preparation for the feast days. The mass was known as the 'The vigil of All Hallows' or the 'Vigil of All Saints' and was often followed by a visit to the cemetery where people would pray for their departed family members placing candles and gifts for the celebration of the next day. These candles were placed in pumpkins so that the congregation could carry the candles from the vigil mass to the cemetery in a procession, commonly known as the 'Jaco-o-lanterns'. Later the tradition would have it that children dressed up as their favorite Saints and collected their toys, treats, clothes, warm blankets and food items to donate to the less fortunate to help them prepare for the harsh winter ahead.

How can we celebrate Halloween as Catholics today? In our modern world, Halloween has become one of the most important celebrations of the year. Children and adults dress up as their favourite heroes, superstars, ghosts and goblins.

As Catholics, we can use this evening to prepare our hearts for celebrating the saints who have gone before us, inspire us to live holy lives and remind us that we are all called to become saints. Rather than joining the majority, we can make All Hallows' Eve a beautiful celebration of Faith, generosity, kindness and the lives of those who followed Christ. Practical ways can include dressing up as saints, reading the life of a saint, etc.

The goal isn't to judge how others celebrate, but to bring Christ into our own family traditions and keep the beautiful meaning of All Saints' Day and All Soul's Day alive.

Saints are not just people we remember — they are people we can learn from and aspire to become.

Parish/Diocese News

Dear Parishioners, To help us prepare for the upcoming Sunday Mass and receive the Word of God more deeply, St. Patrick's Seminary & University in Menlo Park, California, offers weekly reflections hosted by Dr. Nina Heereman, Professor of Sacred Scripture. These reflections are accessible on the YouTube channel Caritas Christi.

I strongly encourage you to take advantage of this valuable spiritual resource. Gaining a richer understanding of the context, theology, and geographical background of Holy Scripture enables us to participate more fully and fruitfully in Eucharistic worship.

Vocation Prayer

HEAVENLY FATHER, Lord of the harvest, we earnestly ask you to bless our diocese and the Church with many priests, deacons and religious who will love you fervently, and gladly and courageously live their lives in service to your Son's Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Bless our families and parishes that we may be given the grace and strength to live our baptismal vocation to be holy, as You are. Bless us that we will respond to your invitation to be living witnesses and disciples of hope as we discern our life in your son, Jesus Christ.

Bless young men and women to respond openly and generously to your invitation to become ministers of your Word and Sacraments, or to serve You faithfully in the covenant of Marriage, or the dignity of single life.

Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.

AMEN
